

HORIZON EUROPE CALL FACTSHEET

Netherlands
Space
Office

Groundstation
SPACE

Non-thematic research actions targeting disruptive technologies for defence

The proposals should primarily consist of activities aiming to create, underpin and improve disruptive technologies that can achieve significant effects in the area of defence. Further, the proposals must substantiate their disruptive impact and could address disruptive technologies in any area of interest for defence highlighted below.

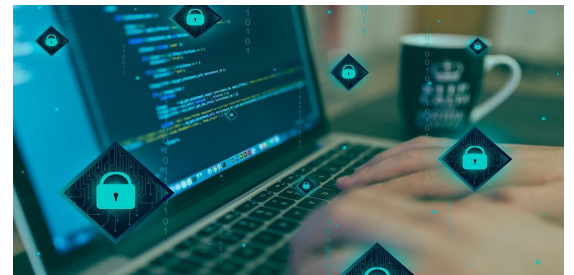

Scope:

Some areas of Interest for Defence:

- Blockchain applications (e.g. for Identification of Friend or Foe)
- Tools and applications improving cybersecurity talents screening
- Artificial intelligence and robotic autonomous systems
- Future naval platform control and management
- Smart damage control related to future naval platforms
- Ship signature management

Topics:

Non-thematic research within select areas of interest for Defence

European Defence Fund

The indicative budget for this category is EUR 16 (Million).

Reference:

EDF-2023-LS-RA-DIS-NT

RA

Opening: 14/06/2023

Deadline: 22/11/2023

Call overview, Produced 03/05/2023. Visit our website www.opencalls.space

Countries

EU member states, and EDF associated countries

Action

Disruptive Technologies

Activities

Applications of Disruptive Technologies for Defence

Contact

info@groundstation.space